

A photograph of a snowy outdoor area. In the foreground, a brown and white dog is jumping on its hind legs, looking up at a black bird flying in the sky. To the left, there are two tall, thin light poles. In the middle ground, a sign on a pole reads "Feuerhydrant". In the background, there are trees and a building. A speech bubble is overlaid on the image, containing the text "Na warte wenn ich dich kriege".
